

E1 – Visa for a Temporary Stay for Medical Treatment

Sr. No.	Type of Documents	Remarks	Yes	No
1.	Application Form	Filled out entirely by the applicant and duly signed.
2.	Valid Passport	The Passport must be valid for at least three months (any other form of the travel document must be valid for at least six months) beyond the intended length of stay in Schengen territory, and it must contain at least two blank visa pages. There will be no visa issued on the supplementary passport page. A previous passport must also be submitted with the visa application if applicable.
3.	Two color photographs	Two identical, current, and in acceptable condition passport photographs, allowing for proper identification.
4.	Travel reservation	Reservations for travel guarantee the applicant's return to their nation of origin.
5.	Travel Insurance	Valid travel insurance covers necessary medical expenses, including repatriation and emergency assistance.
6	SEF Clearance	Form permitting consultation of the Portuguese criminal record by the Immigration and Border Services (Servico de Estrangeiros e Fronteiras – SEF).

7.	Police criminal record certificate (PCC)	Police criminal record from home country, police criminal record from the resident country for more than a year. The Police Clearance Certificate is only effective for three months following the date of issuance. Old, outdated PCCs are not acceptable.
8.	Evidence of Accommodations	Evidence of accommodation, such as a hotel, hostel, or residence.
9.	Medical Documents	A document verifying the applicant's eligibility for hospitalization or outpatient care from an official Health Institution.
10.	Proof of subsistence, (bank & income)	Evidence of means of sustenance may be generated via a term of responsibility issued by the worker hosting body or corporation.
11.	Patient Under Cooperation Agreements	Patients traveling under Cooperation Agreements must present a document issued by a medical committee and a medical appointment. In such instances, proof of means of subsistence and proof of housing may be substituted with a statement issued by the appropriate embassy to ensure the conditions mentioned above.

For further information, please don't hesitate to contact the Zajl office.